Disaster Management for Public Services brings together planning and management officials who are expected to identify and mitigate hazards, and who plan and manage disaster response and recovery efforts or have emergency management roles within their jurisdictions. Public service stakeholders can extend their knowledge and skills for protecting their communities and critical infrastructure from potential or actual threats. During this course, participants work together in multidisciplinary teams to apply the course information with their professional experience in a variety of hands-on, small group activities, and disaster scenarios.

Topics:

- Threats to Public Services
- Disaster Mitigation
- Disaster Planning and Management
- Disaster Response and Recovery
- Public Information

Participant Audience:

- Emergency Management, Public Works Management, Utility Management
- Power Providers, Water Authorities, Utilities and Public Works Personnel
- Health Care and Hospital Management, Public Health Officials
- Local Emergency Personnel, Emergency Planning Directors & Managers, Emergency Preparedness Planning Personnel
